

When You Take Cold

One way is to pay no attention to it; at least not until it develops into pneumonia, or bronchitis, or pleurisy. Another way is to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If he says, "The best thing for colds," then take it. Do as he says, anyway.

We publish our formulae. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

Ayer's
When the bowels are constipated, poisonous substances are absorbed into the blood instead of being daily removed from the body as nature intended. Knowing this danger, doctors always inquire about the condition of the bowels. Ayer's Pills.

Miss Nancy Sample and her little niece, Lucille Kash, spent Sunday with Miss Nancy's parents, C. S. Sample and wife, of Lacy creek.

Alf Kash, of Campton, has been assigned to the Jack Landrum distillery, in the Cox Mill neighborhood, as storekeeper and gauger.

Sam Goodwin, of Ezel, came up Friday and brought a load of his brooms for Kash & Sample, which are said to be as good as brought-on brooms.

Burnie Finch, of Stillwater, reports that three of his ewes Monday night each presented him with twin lambs, quite an addition to his flock of sheep.

Curtis Rose, with Watts, Ritter & Co., Huntington, W. Va., is visiting his parents here and incidentally interviewing our merchants for his house.

There were six or eight additions to the Christian church here Sunday evening, but "Our Man About Town" failed to learn the names of the happy ones.

Six young ladies and two boys, who joined the Christian church last week, were baptized in Red river Monday afternoon, Prof. M. O. Carter officiating.

The debate between the two literary societies, at Pearre Hall Saturday night, resulted in a victory for the Haut et Bon. A large audience was present.

We are under obligations to the Cincinnati branch of the Western Newspaper Union for a handsome replica, size 11x14, of the picture of Kentucky Press Association taken during its recent mid-winter meeting at Lexington. We have mounted it on paste paper and now embellishes our "den."

H. G. A. Notes.

The H. B. society gave their program Monday night with a large attendance. The H. B.'s seem to be holding the day.

A public debate came off Saturday night in Pearre Hall between the H. B. and U. D. societies. A decision was given in favor of the former.

Several went home over Saturday and Sunday. Among them were J. P. Alexander, Hager Holton, Arthur Kash, and Misses Bessie Hollon and Malverie Turner.

Feb. 1. J. S. T.

An Enterprising Man.

Edgar Kash, the polite postmaster at Landsaw, in this county, is one of the most enterprising general merchants in all of Eastern Kentucky, and by his courteous treatment of customers and uniformly fair dealing he has built up a magnificent trade.

Besides general merchandise he deals in ties, lumber, tanbark and everything in the timber trade. By the way, he also runs a saw and grist mill, and on the latter grinds for all his constituency in that community. Last, but by no means least, he is a warm friend of THE HERALD and valued correspondent, to whom we are indebted for several new subscribers.

A Narrow Escape.

Ethel, the eldest daughter of Ellis Johnson, but small of her age, had a narrow escape from cremation Tuesday morning. She is about 14 years of age and in the absence of the housekeeper was getting breakfast when her clothing ignited, and but for the presence of mind of her little brother, Robert, who is about 10 years old and very diminutive, she was in a fair way to be burned badly. He grabbed the burning garment and extinguished the flames at the sacrifice of burned hand, and when all is considered he must be regarded as a little hero.

A Rising Young Man.

Ely Kash, of Campton, second son of Alf Kash, was the first of last week notified by telegraph that the directors of the bank at Edna, Texas, had elected him as cashier of that institution. Wednesday he left for that place, and will at once assume his new duties. He is a nice young man and gained his knowledge of banking from the Farmers and Traders Bank, at Campton, in which he was employed for some time. THE HERALD joins his host of friends in wishing him unbounded success in his new field of labor.

Two More Victims.

While playing football on the campus of Hazel Green Academy one day last week Sammy Cecil met with a painful accident. He was running at his best speed when he hit Selvin Taulbee on the mouth with his knee, breaking two of the boy's teeth. When he struck him the boy's teeth penetrated his leg just above the knee cap, inflicting a gash about an inch in length and apparently half an inch in depth. Dr. Nickell dressed Sammy's leg and he went home, where he has since been nursing a sore leg.

A communication from one "G. Whistle," of Mize, was left out of this issue for want of identification. Anonymous communications cannot be countenanced.

Aunt 'Liza' Nickell, who is living with her brother, A. P. Lacy, on Lacy creek, continues in a very critical condition with little or no hope for her recovery.

Sebron Walter and his wife, near town, and Mrs. Lillie Stamper, of Lower Long Branch, a niece of Mr. Walter, who is visiting them, are all down with la grippe.

Will Henry Wilson, of Daysboro, came down Tuesday morning and entered the little boy he is raising, Charley Wilson, for the current term in Hazel Green Academy.

E. M. Brown, with the Portsmouth Hat Co., Portsmouth, Ohio, was a guest of the Day House Sunday and Monday, accompanied by Billy Childers, of Maytown, engineer of the transportation team.

Alex Shockey has sold his saw mill to John Will Cox, who moved it to Jim Center's, in the Calaboose, where he will make a set to saw out a boundary of timber belonging to Center, Cox, Brown and others.

Halleck Patrick, of Grassy Creek, came up yesterday to sell or move a lot of corn he raised last year at Joe Lykins's, and finally disposed of it to that gentleman at 50 cents a bushel, if we be correctly informed about it.

Mapel & Troy, the milliners, have a new advertisement in this issue to which the ladies of Hazel Green and vicinity are directed attention. Peruse it without a pause and pay particular perspicuity to the prices.

Mrs. Jessie Clark, who has been the highly appreciated housekeeper for Ellis Johnson and children for quite awhile, was taken sick last week and had to go home, but nothing has since been heard from her and her condition is unknown.

A protracted meeting has been in progress at the Murphy school house on Murphy fork for a week or ten days past, Preacher Bill Yocum officiating. There was two or three converts during the meeting, but their names have not been learned.

Miss Lizzie Wilson, who was visiting her sister, Miss Rhilda Wilson, a student at the H. G. A., for several days last week, returned to her home at Spencer last Saturday. While here she took occasion to have her subscription to THE HERALD extended.

A letter received the other day from M. B. T. Adams, Salyersville, states that a team of horses and wagon, valued at $450, went under the ice near Paintsville and were lost. There were about $50 worth of goods on the wagon, which were also lost. The horses got frightened at a passing train.

Rev. Mr. Hatcher, of West Liberty, addressed the young people of Hazel Green Academy in chapel Tuesday morning. It was expected at the opening of school that he would be the principal for this term, at least, but the West Liberty church of which he is pastor, refused to release him.

Willie H. Pieratt, formerly of our town but for several years one of the prominent merchants of Bethel, in Bath county, was elected president of the newly organized bank in that town. Willie L. Day, a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Day, of our town, is one of the directors of the new bank.

Edgar Alexander, of Daysboro, is assisting Cashier Patton in the Hazel Green Bank and meantime taking lessons in practical banking. He was chosen as assistant teacher in the High School just inaugurated at Campton, the other assistant being Taylor Taulbee, of Daysboro, also, but another man contended for the place, and as he was in possession of a subscription school Edgar relinquished his claim rather than compromise the school through complication.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

As the result of a fall sustained several months since, Mrs. Mary Wells died at her home in Maysville last week. She was 80 years of age.

Bert Azbill, who was recently fined $50 for illegal practice of dentistry in Richmond, escaped from the guards while being taken out to work out the fine.

James Carter, a Lexington negro, charged with having robbed William T. White, an aged and infirm ex-union soldier, of $34, must serve six years in the penitentiary.

At the renting of some land in Montgomery county corn land brought $16.25 per acre and grass land brought $5.50 per acre, the highest prices realized at a public renting in years.

Robert V. Stone, who shot Bertha Williams, the bullet striking a pendant the woman wore which Stone had given her, thus saving her life, was fined $50 in Criminal court in Louisville.

An explosion of chemicals in a photograph gallery, in Louisville, caused a damage of $2,000 to stock and $1,000 to building. A skylight was blown out and the flames shot high in the air.

Henry Hember was shot and killed by Ross Broadus, who returned unexpectedly to his home in Nicholasville and found Hember with his wife. Broadus surrendered. All parties are negroes.

As a result of the Court of Appeals overruling the petition for a rehearing of his case, Beach Hargis was taken to Frankfort to begin serving a life sentence for the murder of his father, the late Judge James Hargis.

The Maysville Public Ledger is responsible for the statement that Judge A. H. Parker, of Vanceburg, has a waste basket made from an enormous gourd which was raised by his mother before she was married some sixty years ago.

Mrs. Neal Hubbard was attacked by a highwayman on the streets of Maysville, who demanded her purse. She gave him a stinging blow in the face with the purse, which had considerable silver money in it, and screamed. The highwayman fled.

Mrs. Henry Youtsey was last week granted an absolute divorce and restored to her maiden name, Sarah C. French. Mrs. Youtsey for years stuck to her husband, but finally became convinced that there was no chance for his freedom and sought a divorce.

The Reporter, a colored newspaper published at Mt. Sterling, owned and edited by Noah Magowan, was cleaned out by fire last Thursday night. The presses and type were badly damaged. The loss is about $1,500, partially covered by insurance.

Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Rankin announced that the State Farmers' Institute would be held in Frankfort February 23, 24 and 25. An attractive program has been arranged and the meeting will be one of the most instructive yet held.

William Washington and another negro named "Rounder" engaged in a quarrel over a pint of whiskey, at Maysville. The former slashed the latter across the neck with a knife, inflicting a nearly fatal wound. "Rounder" escaped and Washington is in jail.

In the Hill Evans contest, of the Brathitt-Lee-Magoffin district, Dr. J. H. Evans, Republican, was unseated and Col. R. C. Hill, Democrat, was seated. A motion to declare the seat vacant and order a new election on account of irregularities in Brathitt county was lost.

In a recount of the ballots to settle a contest who was elected county judge of Lawrence county gross errors were found in the count, not only of the contested office but of several of the others. More care should be exercised in appointing election officers and only competent men should be given the position.

The Buzzards have taken to the Hills. Two brothers named Hill and two sisters named Buzzard were married in Cynthiana last week. Wood Hill married Miss Virgie Buzzard, and William H. Hill married Miss Sudie E. Buzzard. The grooms are sons of Wyatt Hill, and the brides are daughters of George W. Buzzard.
